

HERRIN DEFENDANTS LINKED WITH CRIME

Fifth Man Named in Testimony on His Wedding Day.

NUPTIALS HELD IN JAIL

Several More Witnesses Describe the Massacre Scenes.

EX-MAYOR TELLS OF MOB

Physician Declares He Saw Fallen Men Riddled in Road.

MARION, Ill., Dec. 18 (Associated Press).—Dr. O. F. Shipman testified today at the Herrin massacre trial that he had seen six unarmed men shot down by a mob in front of the Herrin cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson testified they had seen a crowd of armed men drive thirty or forty unarmed prisoners past their farm.

R. O. Greer, former Mayor of Herrin, testified he had seen forty-eight prisoners escorted by twenty-five or thirty armed men. He said there were several hundred persons about the mine, and that he saw automobiles from Missouri, Indiana, Kentucky and other States.

Dr. Shipman said he had followed the mob and its bleeding, pleading captives a mile and a half through the streets of Herrin to the cemetery, told of a volley of shots and of seeing the six prisoners drop to the road.

Saw Fallen Men Shot.
He said a man he did not identify stood over the prostrate victims and emptied the contents of two revolvers into their bodies. He swore that Joe Carnaghi, one of the defendants, had fired into the prostrate body of Howard Hoffman of Huntington, Ind., one of the twenty non-union men killed.

"If you have ever said your prayers say them now, for you won't have much longer," he quoted an admonition by an unidentified leader of the mob to the prisoners just before they were shot down.

Asked if he could tell who did the shooting, the witness named Joe Carnaghi and Leva Mann, two of the defendants now on trial, and Percy Hall and Jim Galligan, indicted but not defendants in this case.

The name of Peter Hiller, another defendant, who was married in the jail to-night to Anna Campbell, 18, of Marion, was brought into the evidence for the first time to-day. Thus all five defendants have been named in the testimony as having been seen with guns during the rioting.

Trailing Massacre Survivors.

George Nelson was the first witness to name Hiller. He said he had seen him in the crowd at the mine in the morning, but without a gun. Dr. Shipman testified he had seen Hiller that night with a gun strapped about his body and that Hiller had said to him that some of the prisoners had gotten away and that he was bound back to the mine to search for them. Dr. Shipman also said he had seen Leva Mann step out of the mob at the cemetery after the shooting, wave a gun about his head and declare, "Come on, boys, we've got two more down here."

Mrs. Nelson testified she recognized C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the "strip" mine, limping painfully along among the prisoners. She said he was taken down a road and that she later heard shots. She said the only other person in the crowd she recognized was Mrs. Otis Clark, wife of one of the defendants, and that Mrs. Clark said: "They've got old 'Peg' Leg."

Nelson said he had seen Otis Clark and Oscar Howard lead McDowell down the road, had heard shots and had found the mine superintendent's bullet pierced body.

Ex-Mayor Greer testified that he had seen Otis Clark flourishing a gun and had heard him say: "I've been in this fight for five days and I believe in starting at the head to stop a thing. I believe in taking every one out and stopping the breed."

Says 'Grace Borrowed Gun.'
Otis A. Greer, son of P. O. Greer, said he saw Otis Clark with a gun. Jean Burkhardt, of Marion, testified that Bert Grace, a defendant, had borrowed a gun from him at his store the day of the riot and had returned it the following day.

Dan O'Rourke and three other mine guards were in court to-day prepared to take the stand, but were held over until to-morrow. O'Rourke is the only survivor of the six men shot down in Cemetery road.

James Lacey, gardener at "Uplands," the estate of Mrs. William A. M. Burden at Mount Kisco, died yesterday at the Northern Westchester Hospital of burns received last week when a boiler exploded in the basement of the house on the farm. Matthew J. O'Brien, superintendent, was killed outright and his son, Gerald, was severely burned.

A BANDAGED REVOLVER FORCES BANK ROBBERY

A Note and Bogus Check Assist Polite Bandit.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—The Southwestern State Bank was robbed of $1,000 to-day by a young man who walked into the bank with his hand wrapped in a bandage.

He presented a check for $1,000 and a letter to B. R. Brundage, the cashier. "You are looking into the barrel of a revolver in this bandage," said the letter. "I want you to O. K. this check. Go to the paying teller with me and get the money."

Mr. Brundage stepped with the man to the paying teller and directed him to cash the check, which he did.

"I want you to go with me," the bandit then told Mr. Brundage, and he forced the latter a block down the street, passing three policemen who stood chatting on the corner.

"You may go now," said the bandit, "and thank you. You've been awfully kind." With that he disappeared around a corner.

BANK ROBBED WHILE STOCKHOLDERS MEET

Masked Men Got $2,000 to $3,000 in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 18.—The Walnut State Bank at Walnut Park, a suburb, was robbed late to-day by three masked men, who escaped with between $2,000 and $3,000 in currency. Two of the men pointed revolvers at the tellers while the third went and picked up the money. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

Stockholders of the bank were meeting in a back room of the building at the time but knew nothing of the robbery.
